

Brother Sun

(zu singen auf: „Bruder Sonne“ / Hildesheimer Schöpfungslieder, dt. Text: Susanne Brandt / Musik: Michael Čulo)

Brother sun, giving colour all day long, sister moon with stars on the horizon, every light, really shining and surprising sounds to you, God, so bright
as we sing side by side, finding hope and peace together and the fear, God, will be lesser.

Brother wind, full of power in the air, sister water, waves on the ocean, all our struggle with various emotion
as we sing side by side,
finding hope and peace together
and the fear, God, will be lesser.

Brother fire, arisen from the glow, sister earth, the space where all are living, every growing and blooming, you are giving,
sounds to you, God, so bright,
as we sing side by side,
finding hope and peace together
and the fear, God, will be lesser.

Sister Death, sometimes tangible yet far.
God, your love will carry our sorrow, our faith for today and for tomorrow
sounds to you, God, so bright,
as we sing side by side,
finding hope and peace together
and the fear, God, will be lesser.
